

VISION

Dedicated to providing a safe environment, the Northern York County School District, in partnership with the home and community, is invested in developing critical, creative thinkers with intellectual curiosity. All students will be prepared to meet the challenges of a dynamic, global society with confidence and compassion.